

STYLE QUEEN

RED

Martine McCutcheon in Armani at the Louis Vuitton Classic

Heather Graham at the premiere of Mr Deeds

Left: Rebecca Romijn-Stamos in Emanuel Ungaro at Cannes. Right: Cindy Crawford in a Rozae Nichols top and Roberto Cavalli skirt at the Sports Exchange in Hollywood

Out there

Scarlet women show their true colours

Red is one of those summer favourites that always looks good, either on its own or teamed with other colours and a tan. Martine McCutcheon was simple yet elegant at the Louis Vuitton Classic, Heather Graham simmered in a low-cut blood-red number, and Molly Simms looked exotic in chiffon. Rebecca Romijn-Stamos went for a halterneck. Cindy Crawford wore a pretty blouse and skirt, and Tasha de Vasconcelos opted for paisley. HENRIETTA DUPS

Left: Molly Simms in Sonia Rykiel at the MTV Movie Awards in LA. Above: Tasha de Vasconcelos in Dior at the London premiere of Minority Report

THIS MONTH'S STYLE QUEEN COZMO JENKS

Milliner Cozmo Jenks always adds an eccentric twist to a party, combining psychedelic prints with flamboyant headpieces. From left: a vision of colour in a dress by Florinda (020 8715 7546) and her own hat at Ascot; in a Florinda coat and her own Twenties-style beaded headpiece at the Dior Jewellery party; and slinky in Florinda at the Louis Vuitton Classic.

DESMOND O'NEILL, REX, LFI, BIG PICTURES, ANTOINETTE EUGSTER, ALAN DAVIDSON, IMAGEDIRECT